Fair Hearing Rights

Any applicant for, or recipient of, services under the Family PACT Program shall have a right to a hearing regarding eligibility or receipt of services. An applicant or recipient does not have a right to contest changes made to the eligibility standards or benefits of the Family PACT Program.

First level review: If you wish to appeal either your denial of eligibility or receipt of services, please send your name, telephone number, address, and reason why you are requesting a First Level Review to the address below. A request for a first level review must be postmarked within 20 working days of the denial of eligibility or services. The Office of Family Planning may request additional information by telephone or in writing from the provider or the applicant before issuing a decision.

Formal Hearing: You may request a formal hearing within 90 days from the day you were notified that you were not eligible or the services you wanted will not be provided or have been discontinued. If you have good cause as to why you were not able to file for a hearing within the 90 days, you may still file for a hearing. If you provide good cause, your request may still be scheduled. Provide all requested information such as your full name, telephone number, address, and the reason for the Formal Hearing and mail it to the Formal Hearing address below. If you wish, you may attach a letter as well and explain why you believe the action taken is not correct. You may also call the Public Inquiry and Response number below. If you have trouble understanding English, be sure to state your language so arrangements can be made to have language assistance at the hearing. If you have chosen an authorized representative, be sure to state his/her name, phone number and address. Keep a copy of your hearing request for your records. You may submit your formal hearing request in one of two ways:
